Monday 18th November - Final day of Scholastic Book Fair

We are excited to have had the opportunity to host a Scholastic Book Fair this week! This has given our families the opportunity to browse and purchase wonderful new books. Every book sold enables us access to free books for our classrooms and library. The final day to purchase books on the school playground after school is Monday 18th November!

We look forward to seeing lots of you there! You will be able to scan a QR code at the fair that will take you directly to payment. Alternatively, for any families including children attending Treetops, there is an option to purchase book vouchers online using the link below and these can be redeemed at the fair.
